A Celebrating Diversity Workshop provides a positive environment for participants to discuss issues of stereotyping, prejudice, and mistreatment of all groups, including those defined by gender, race, heritage, family roles, religion, age, sexual orientation, nationality, geographical region, economic class, job, and physical capacity. Concrete skills and resources are developed to assist in promoting fairness and inclusion.

All participants should attend the entire workshop, as it is designed to build skill upon skill.

To register for the workshop, submit your completed registration form (below) and $5.00 registration fee (cash or personal check made out to "Manchester University") by Monday, Feb. 19 to:

Professor Barb Burdge - ACEN 214 - Dept. of Sociology, Social Work, and Criminal Justice.

Put your registration under Prof. Burdge's office door or in dept. mailbox.
